Dear Minister Goyal,

In connection with the signing on this date of the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of the Republic of India ("the Agreement"), I have the honour to confirm the following agreement reached between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland ("the United Kingdom") and the Government of the Republic of India ("India") (together "the Parties", severally "a Party") during the course of the negotiations of the Agreement with regards to Article 13.69 (Term of Protection – Intellectual Property Rights):

2. If the event described in paragraph 1 occurs, the Parties shall:

  - (b) where these consultations are entered into, review Article 13.69 with a view to increasing the term of protection following the event referred to under paragraph 1; and
  - (c) following these consultations, complete the review under this Side Letter in a timely manner.
3. This Side Letter shall constitute an integral part of the Agreement.

I have the honour to propose that this letter and your letter of confirmation in reply shall constitute an agreement between the United Kingdom and India, which shall enter into force on the date on which the Agreement enters into force for both the United Kingdom and India.

Yours sincerely,
